

Digitised Manuscripts to Europeana

For this EC funded project, Digital Humanities scholars join Europe's leading cultural heritage institutions and semantic web development teams to build a suite of cutting-edge Linked Data tools for the aggregation and augmentation of digitised manuscripts and their metadata.

Building on top of Europeana, the DM2E tools will enable scholars to connect and contextualise manuscripts from all over Europe in new and exciting ways.

web
dm2e.eu

twitter @dm2europeana

email
dm2e@okfn.org

funded by the CIP-ICT Policy Support Programme